

BIOGRAPHY OF MARIE LONG

Marie Long is a government affairs professional with two decades experience at AT&T where she earned a reputation for navigating competitive legislative landscapes; advocating for policy initiatives and shaping regulatory environments on behalf of the company.

Her experience developing strategic engagement plans on telecommunications, merger, acquisitions, taxes and regulatory issues are bolstered by her experience managing national third party organizations and long-term partnerships with community and consumer organizations for the company. Marie also served as President of the AT&T Foundation where she was responsible for the company's corporate social responsibility and employee giving programs.

Prior to joining AT&T, Marie served as the Executive Director of the Public Policy Institute for the Rainbow/PUSH Coalition. In that role, she served as liaison to Fortune 500 companies and minority-owned businesses regarding equal employment opportunities, mergers, acquisitions, and sales. Marie has held previous positions at the Democratic National Committee and the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee.

She has served on the Board of the Congressional Black Caucus Foundation and Chaired their Corporate Advisory Council, the Federal Communications Commission's Advisory Committee on Diversity for the Communications for the Digital Age, and the Women Presidents Organization's International Board of Directors.

Marie holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Virginia and a law degree from Catholic University's Columbus School of Law.
